

Chapman Beth Nielsen, Walk My Way

Chapman Beth Nielsen

Walk My Way

What a fool

Thought I'd wrapped up the case

I went and promised my heart

But you just laughed in my face

What a fall

Never thought I'd forget you

I gave it all

But I've got no regret

I loved you,

I cared

CHORUS

So if by chance you walk my way

And feel the joy and pain of yesterday

You'll never need a reason to pretend

A simple smile is all I ask

The smile you hide behind your painted mask

Somewhere between a stranger and a friend

What a crime

When you want someone so

I put my heart on the line

But I had to let go

It's Over

CHORUS

Now, my love, it's over

CHORUS

(You'll never know you hurt me, baby) walk my way
