Chapman Tracy, Freedom Now

Chapman Tracy
Crossroads
Freedom Now
They throwed him in jail
And they kept him there
Hoping soo he'd die
That his body and spirit would waste away
And soon after that his mind

But every day is born a fool One who thinks that he can rule One who says tomorrow's mine One who wakes one day to find

The prison doors open the shackles broken And chaos in the street Everybody sing we're free free free free Everybody sing we're free free free free Everybody sing we're free free free free

They throwed him in jail
And they kept him there
Hoping his memory'd die
That the people forget how he once led
And fought for justice in their lives

But every day is born a man Who hates what he can't understand Who thinks the answer is to kill Who thinks his actions are god's will

And he thinks he's free free free free Yes he thinks he's free free free free He thinks he's free free free free

Soon must come the day
When the righteous have their way
Unjustly tried are free
And people live in peace I say
Give the man release
Go on and set your conscience free
Right the wrongs you made
Even a fool can have his day

Let us all be free free free free Let us all be free free free free Let us all be free free free free

Free our bodies free our minds Free our hearts Freedom for everyone And freedom now Freedom now Freedom now Freedom now

Let us all be free free free free Let us all be free free free free Let us all be free free free free
