

Chappell Roan, My Kink is Karma

We broke up on a Tuesday
Kicked me out with the rent paid
Ruined my credit
Stole my cute aesthetic
Who knew that we'd let it
Get this bad when it ended

It's comical bridges you burn
If karma's real hope it's your turn
I heard from Katie you're losing it lately moved back with your parents
And date girls who are 18

It's hot
When you have a meltdown
In the front of your house
And you're getting kicked out

It's hot
When you're drinking downtown
And you're getting called out
Cause you're running your mouth
Oh god
And It's coming around
Yeah It's coming around
Yeah it's coming around
Oh god oh god
People say I'm jealous but my kink is watching you

Ruin your life
You losing you mind
You dying your hair
People say I'm jealous but my kink is watching you
crashing your car
You breaking your heart
You thinking I care
People say I'm jealous but my kink is karma

Wishin' you the best in the worst way
Using your distress as foreplay
6 months since April
And I'm doing better
no need to be hateful
In your fake Gucci sweater

It's hot
When you have a meltdown
In the front of your house

It's hot

People say I'm jealous but my kink is watching you

Ruin your life

You losing you mind
You dying your hair

You crashing your car
You breaking your heart
You thinking I care

It's hot
when you're going through hell and you're hating yourself, I'm feeling myself
It's hot
when you know that you're caught and you're getting pissed off, yeah it's getting me off It's hot, it's hot oh God, oh God.... oh God.
People say I'm jealous but my kink is watching you

Ruin your life
You losing you mind
You dying your hair
People say I'm jealous but my kink is watching you
Crashing your car
You breaking your heart
You thinking I care
