

Charice Pempengco, It Can Only Get Better

Let the sun refuse to shine
It won't be long before the days are brighter
If every step's an uphill climb, oohh
Carry on until they feel much lighter
For all the clouds up in the sky, oohh
For all the teardrops in our eyes
It can get only get better
Be still my heart
It can only get better
We've come this far
It can only get better
I know it hurts
For what it's worth
It can only get better
If he should ever come our way
Dry the tears and look somewhere above him
Might be easier to say than to do
But just pretend that you no longer love him
When your back's against the ropes, oohh
When you miss someone the most
It can get only get better
Be still my heart
It can only get better
We've come this far
It can only get better
I know it hurts
For what it's worth
It can only get better
I know it hurts, oohh
For what it's worth
It can only get better
It can only get better
I know it hurts
For what it's worth
It can only get better
It can only get better