

Charisma, In Velvet

Why did you go so soon
Rooms are still warm
Your old rumors are hunting you
Your blood is running in you
And you still wonder why

Wont you be my guide
I need no one
My life is full of your needs
In velvet, in velvet

Easily made promises
Floating truth and silence
I cant hate you for this, cant beg and please
After all our faults and weaknesses
In our time

Wont you be my guide
I need no one
My life is full of your needs
In velvet, in velvet

Wont you swallow your pride
I need no more
My shallow life is made of your dreams
In velvet, in velvet
