

Charley Pride, Completely Helpless

Completely helpless I'm standing alone facing the whole world now that you're gone
Completely helpless oh what can I do completely helpless oh without you

With hands that are trembling I walk out the door
I can't take these four walls alone anymore
Cause now it's all over you say we're through
But how can I tell this heart that still loves you Completely helpless...
Completely helpless oh without you