

Charley Pride, Seven Years With A Wonderful Wo

Tonight as I lie here I'm sleepless any thoughts are flooding my mind
They're thoughts of peace and not trouble peace of a wonderful kind
Peace that I have a good woman a woman whom I adore
Tonight is our anniversary we were wed seven years ago
Seven years with a wonderful woman seven years with a love that won't end
Seven years with a wonderful woman will inspire any poor man

[fiddle - steel]

The moon sends its beams through our window they dance on your angel like face
They tell me you're God's gift from heaven a gift of his wonderful grace
I'll just slip out of bed while you sleep dear and bow with my knees to the floor
To thank God for seven years with you and to pray for seventy more
Seven years with a wonderful woman...
