

Charley Pride, Someone I Can't Forget

If I hurt long enough then I won't hurt the more
If I cried hard enough my tears will stop to flow
That's what I tell myself each day I go through
But something is wrong cause I can't forget you
There's still someone I can't forget and there's still only one I care to be with
So when they ask me why not find somebody else
I say there's still someone I can't forget
[ ac.guitar ]
There's still someone...
Yes there's still someone I can't forget
