

Charli XCX, 2099 (ft. Troye Sivan)

i pull up, roll up, fuck up fast like a nascar, never touch us got visions, levels,
they don't get me quiet
no discussions
please hush

don't make decision for me
you don't know nothin'

I am pluto, neptun
pull up, roll up, future, future

got visions, levels,
no discussions

killing
I am so deadly, deadly I am zooming like a jet ski zoom, zoom

little dose of Napalm Blow it up don't care what she talk about, no all she wanna do is my style, yeah no one on my level

I play nice ' cause I'm too clever I won't show it never, never but it's crystal

I am way , way better she might pop but it's whatever she might sell but what's she selling? does she last long

I know they write about me I know that they all see me too scared so they don't play me some people try to save me but I am feeling so good better than I ever could having people in my business got no cage

prison
always got away wanna listen what I say think I care about the fame
