

Charli XCX, Troye Sivan, 1999

i just wanna go back, back to 1999
take a ride to my old neighborhood
I just wanna go back, sing “hit me baby, one more time”
wanna go back, wanna go

I just wanna go back
Nike Airs, all that CD, old Mercedes
Drive around listening to Shady like, ok
Never under pressure
Those days it was so much better Feeling cool in my youth, relaxing no money, no problem it was easy back then

wish that we could go back in time
got memories
maybe we could do it tonight
tonight’s the night

i just wanna go back, back to 1999
take a ride to my old neighborhood
I just wanna go back, sing
“hit me baby, one more time”
wanna go back, wanna go

I remember go back home best friends, all night, no phone no cares, I was dumb and so young My room singing Michael Jackson
Never under pressure
Those days it was so much better
Feeling cool in my youth, I’m asking: Does anyone remember how we did it back then?

wish that we could go back in time
got memories
maybe we could do it tonight
tonight’s the night

i just wanna go back, back to 1999
take a ride to my old neighborhood
I just wanna go back, sing
“hit me baby, one more time”

back to where we came from playing air guitar on the roof
in the kitchen, up on the table
like we had a beautiful view
I wanna go
I just wanna go back
back to 1999

back to 1999
I know those days are over but a boy can fantasize about JJT on MTV and when I close my eyes and I’m right there, right there
and I’m right there, right there
and I’m right there, right there I wanna go back

i just wanna go back, back to 1999

take a ride to my old neighborhood
I just wanna go back, sing
"hit me baby, one more time"

playing air guitar on the roof
like we had a beautiful view
I wanna go
I just wanna go back
back to 1999

I just wanna go back
back to 1999
take me back to 99'
