

Charli XCX, White Mercedes don't say you love me cause i can't say it back donn't say you're sorry 'cause you've done nothing bad swallow my feelings but won't swallow my pride you know I've got a suit of armor on you'll never see me cry

I hate the silence that's why the music uis always loud so many problems
I try to drown them out 1000 bottles collecting souvenirs you know it's so hard to admit it but the only good inside of me is you I take all these blue and yellow pills but nothing seems to last like you you're chasing after something that you'll never catch like a white Mercedes, always been running too fast when your heart is breaking, you keep on taking me back hate myself, I really love you hurting you feels like I am hurting as well all I know is I don't deserve you you're so forgiving my friends think you're the best from the beginning your friends said it wouldn't ;asr but this connection it's something they don't see yu know it's hard to admit it but the best part of me was always you I take all these blue and yellow pills

hate myself, I really love you
all I know is I don't deserve you

I don't deserve you
I don't deserve your love'
I don't deserve you

hate myself, I really love you
all I know is I don't deserve you

I don't deserve you
I don't deserve you
