

Charlie Landsborough, Further Down The Road

I do not count what I've lost, what I'm losing
I'm a traveller with no fixed abode
All of the gifts yesterday spent refusing
May well be waiting further down the road

I tried to take every chance I was given
But if luck's a lady she never showed There's more to life than just making a living
My life is waiting further down the road

CHORUS:

Further down the road
I can see the light
Further down the road
Everything 'll be all right
Further down the road
I will be free
Further down the road
Heaven waits for me

All of the years chasing smoke-rings and rumour
Looking for seed that had never been sown
Old Father Time has a strange sense of humour
He'll hear me laughing further down the road

REPEAT CHORUS:

No looking back
I'm moving on
I'm having no regrets
What's gone is gone
