

Charlie Landsborough, I Say You

When some one asks what makes me grin in Situations where I just can't win I say you
I say you

What keeps me going
What makes me strong
While all around me things are going wrong
I say you
I say you

You are the sunshine
That brightens up a cloudy day
You are the laughter that chases my blues away

When some one asks me to explain
Who inspires me time and again
I say you
I say you

Whats the secret of my success
The source of all my happiness
I say you
I say you

You are the sunshine
That brightens up a cloudy day
You are the laughter that chases my blues away

I say you
I say you

I say you
I say you

You are the sunshine
That brightens up a cloudy day
You are the laughter that chases my blues away

My fortunes store is locked and barred
Who's my perfect calling card
I say you
I say you

Who builds the bridges for me to cross
Who gives me words when I'm at a loss
I say you
I say you

I say you
I say you
