

Charlie Landsborough, If Only I Had Wings

If only I had wings
Id let the air release my mind
And leave my worries far behind
And let the silent oceans of the skys
Wash every grain of sorrow from my eyes

If only I had wings
Id fly beyond the rainbows door
In search of heavens stardust shore Where long forgotten dreams will all come true
Beyond the mellow oceans tender blue

Im flying,
up where the eagle reigns Im flying,
leaving behind my chains

If only I had wings
upon the breeze Id lay my soul
And let gods hand take full control
And sing my hearts surrender to his love Forever to the moon and stars above

Im flying,
up where the eagle reigns Im flying,
leaving behind my chains

Music

And let the silent oceans of the skys
Wash every grain of sorrow from my eyes
If only I had wings.
If only I had wings.
