

Charlie Landsborough, Love Has Come Home To

Lazy ole moon looking down on me
Look at the smile on his face
I'm smiling too
Gone are the blue
Nights when life kept us apart
Love has come home to my heart

The past is a book
I've stopped reading
Present is all that we own
Right here and now
I'm learning how
Easy a dream is to start
Love has come home to my heart

I've been to long away from this feeling
To long remembering yesterday
Now the look in your eyes is revealing
Love has come home to my heart to stay

Lazy ole moon in his heaven
Timeless old smile doesn't change
The whole world can see
He's smiling on me
Making my sorrow depart
Love has come home to my heart

So sweet is the night
Time standing still
Here with you in my arms
Old friend the moon on the hill

Lazy ole moon looking down on me
Look at the smile on his face
I'm smiling too
Gone are the blue
Nights when life kept us apart
Love has come home to my heart

Love has come home to my heart
