

Charlie Landsborough, Not The Only Thing Blue

Moonlight on the waters casting its spell over me
Staring like a blind man for the one thing my eyes can not see
Darling here I am in the night
Darling how I'm missing you
The trees and the shadows are all dressed in black
And the sky's not the only thing blue

It's been so long since I held you
Never known such a longing before
Can't eat and I can't sleep till my arms get to hold you once more
Darling here I am in the night
Darling how I'm missing you
The trees and the shadows are all dressed in black
And the sky not the only thing blue

Wondering if you're missing me to
Does goodbye mark the moment you start?
Counting the days till the long winters through
And I welcome you back to my heart

Moonlight on the waters ripples of light on the sea
Dancing while I'm dreaming soon you'll be dreaming with me
Darling here I am in the night
Darling how I'm missing you
The trees and the shadows are all dressed in black
And the sky's not the only thing blue
And the sky's not the only thing blue
