

Charlie Landsborough, Sentimentally Yours

Sentimental I have been
For all the years that came between
Loving you and now
Time will not allow me to forget them
Happiness that we once knew
When life was sweet and love was true
Now I am walkin' floors
Sentimentally Yours

Sentimental I will stay
While I dream my life away
Longing for your touch
Never knew how much I have come to miss
Your smiling face and eyes of blue
Guess I'll spend my whole life through
Opening all doors
Sentimentally Yours

Am so melon collie baby
I still hopin some day maybe
You love again
But until then

Sentimental I'll remain
Tethered to that old love chain
That old turning wheel
Never seems to heal the awful sorrow
In this broken heart of mine
Pain is easy to define
Longing without pause
Sentimentally Yours

Am so melon collie baby
I still hopin some day maybe
You love again
But until then

Sentimental I'll remain
Tethered to that old love chain
Times old turning wheel
Never seems to heal the awful sorrow
In this broken heart of mine
Pain is easy to define
Longing without pause
Sentimentally Yours
