

Charlie Louvin, I'll Remember Always

I'll remember always no I won't forget you
I'll remember always each adventure that we dared
I'll remember always all the happiness we ever shared
Then there were the other times of the sorrow we went through
But I'll remember always no I won't forget you
All the empty dreams that we once knew soon were more than filled
Lady Luck she truly smiled and put us in her will
And even now that you've gone I'll have mem'ries still unused
And I'll remember always there'll never be another you [steel]
I'll remember always all the hardships we ever new
I'll remember always all the dreams we watched come true
Disappointment could come by and we'd cry when feeling blue
But I'll remember always no I won't forget you
All the empty dreams...
I'll remember always no I won't forget you
