

Charlie Louvin, I Want A Happy Life

To tell me you forgotten me is like telling me a lie
To think that you love someone else is enough to make me die
Your love is mine and I'll tell you now I don't want someone new
I just want a happy life and live it all with you
If you're willing to forget the bad things I have done
I didn't mean to break your heart from now on you're the one
Forever and forever we'll be so far from blue
I just want a happy life and live it all with you
[steel - piano]
If you're willing to forget...
I just want a happy life and live it all with you
