

Charlie Louvin, Stolen Love

You stole his love and left behind dear a broken heart a worried mind
Your new found love will turn to hate dear and you'll be left alone to pine
Stolen love can't last forever stealing leads to a life of sin
You stole his love from another your stolen love I know someday will end [steel]
You'll walk in shadows branded forever you and you alone will bear the shame
Stolen love can't last forever with stolen love you play a losing game
Stolen love can't last forever...
