

Charlie Louvin, We're Still Together

We're still together yet so far apart
Because of little Jimmy and his baby sister Sue
You pretend you'll love me and I'll still stay with you
But just between you and me we know each other's hearts
We're still together yet so far apart
The only time we kiss at all it's for the kids to see
They don't know we're living in the world of make believe
We know if we should separate it would break their little hearts
So we're still together yet so far apart
[steel]
We hold hands laugh a lot till the kids're fast asleep
Then I take a walk and you start to weep
We don't talk about it cause where would we start
We're still together yet so far apart
The only time we kiss...
