

Charlie Mars, When The Sun Goes Down

Runnin' low on money
Runnin' low on friends to call
And the man in my mirror says
This is all your fault
If I could fall down
Into your arms
Would you pretend I was
The only one you loved
She said, "I don't care babe
Where you go
When the sun goes down
As long as you come home to me"
Runnin' from the angels
Who carry our wings
And the voice in my head
Draws me down the darker things
And when I fall down
Into your arms
Would you pretend I was
The only one you loved
She said, "I don't care babe
Where you go
When the sun goes down
As long as you come home to me"
And I, I remember when
I remember when you said
I remember when you said,
"My life is like an April sky"
You said, "I don't care babe
Where you go
When the sun goes down
As long as you come home to me"
Interlude (chorus)
As long as you come home to me...
