

Charlotte Church, Brave New World

I have a vision,
No one can imagine;
I can see things that no one sees.
I have the wisdom,
Knowledge of the future;
Ill take you to the end of time with me.

Refrain:
And its a brave new world that we live in,
As we lose ourselves tonight.
We have no control of our feelings,
As we journey to the corners of our minds.

Deep down inside me,
Way beyond the silence;
I can hear things that no one hears.
Questions unanswered,
Better left unspoken;
Ill take them to the very end with me.

Refrain:
And its a brave new world that we live in,
As we lose ourselves tonight.
We have no control of our feelings,
As we journey to the corners of our minds.

Refrain

Oooooooooooooo
Brave new world.
Oooooooooooooo
Brave new world
