

Charlotte Church, Easy To Forget

Its late at night and youre not home
Im still waiting for your call
But it never-it never comes
Do you ever think of me?
Can you hear my empty plea
For your love and affection?

Ill never know, Ill never know
Why I cant let go of what you do
Not what you say
That keeps you one step away
Am I that easy to forget?
If only youd make one sacrifice
Do what it takes to make it alright
Am I that easy to forget?

Im standing here in the bitter cold
Wish that you were here to hold
Cause I miss you
The way you used to be
Am I in this love alone?
When I speak, the words just fall
And you listen (but not to me)
