

Charlotte Church, Fool No More

You are guilty
Of every sin I know
You dont take care of me
And Im feeling so low
Now, I do love you
But you make it so hard

Now Ive tried to let go
But I just cant say No
Ive cried all my tears over you
Tell me what, what can I do

You cant fool my heart anymore
So now Im walking out the door
Youve taken my soul now let go
Im not that fool I was before
Im not your fool no more

Dont you judge me
As I leave it all behind
I was the victim
It was you that did the crime

Now Im losing control
But I just cant say no
I see through your smiles, your disguise
Wont take more, no more of your lies

You cant fool my heart anymore
So now Im walking out the door
Youve taken my soul now let go
Im not that fool I was before
Im not your fool no more

So (so) what went wrong
Held me down for so long
Tried to forget your mistakes
But its hard to forgive when it feels like a part of you dies, dies inside

You cant fool my heart anymore
So now Im walking out the door
Youve taken my soul now let go
Im not that fool I was before
Im not your fool no more
Im not your fool no more
Im not your fool no more
