

Charlotte Church, It's The Heart That Matters Most

Time to spread some hope,
Make the spirits rise
Do you see the wonder in their eyes
Time to speak of love
Hold each other close
Cause its the heart that matters most

Its still the same old moon
Why does it shine so bright
Theres a little magic in the air tonight
Time to speak of love
Hold each other close
Cause its the heart that matters most

Always the heart that matters most

Oh, take a look around you can see that it's true
Its like a river flowing inside of you
Everyone needs love, you need it too
So heres what you, have got to do

Spread a little hope, make the spirits rise
Do you see the wonder in their eyes
Time to speak of love, hold each other close
cause its the heart that matters most

In time we come to learn

Its the heart that matters most
