

Charlotte Martin, Bring On The Day

Well I'm feeling like I'm falling
But I'm standing on my feet
Reality is calling
But that don't bother me
'Cause I'm on my way
I'm okay

I'm ready to get ready
Willing to get by
I'm able to imagine
What it's like to fly
Into the blue
And fall down too

Hey (hey)
Hey (hey)
C'mon, bring on the day
'Cause I just might get everything I need
Hey (hey)
Hey (hey)
I'm givin' what it takes
I'm ready as I'm ever gonna be
So bring on the day

Like a diver in the water
Everything feels slow
But my caramel macchiato really gets me in the flow
And I'm on my way
Whatever it takes

Hey (hey)
Hey (hey)
C'mon, bring on the day
'Cause I just might get everything I need
Hey (hey)
Hey (hey)
I'm givin' what it takes
I'm ready as I'm ever gonna be
So bring on the day

What you get is what you see
Open up your eyes, they'll set you free
It all works out eventually
You gotta keep on keepin' on
I can rock and I can roll
I know I wanna move, gotta take control
Watch out world, 'cause here I come
And I can't stop 'til I'm done

Hey (hey)
Hey (hey)
C'mon, bring on the day
'Cause I just might get everything I need
Hey (hey)
Hey (hey)
I'm givin' what it takes
I'm ready as I'm ever gonna be
So bring on the day
