

Charlotte Nilsson, Miss Jealousy

oooh ohhh

everytime, when your smile's not meant for me i get sad 'cause it hurts my soul to see that your love might be shared with someone new yet i know you would never be untrue but then she's there knockin' on my shoulder sneakin' in to my mind

she's in control despite of what i told her she makes my senses go blind i wanna be your only one and i'm sorry for what's said and done i wish that i could turn back time i'm sorry, but blame it on miss jealousy you're the one to fulfill my every need and i see you and i where meant to be

sneakin' in to my mind

chorus 1 x2

even though i have you near in my mind there's still this fear and suddenly she'll come around and hit me to the ground i wanna be the one wanna feel that i'm part of you sorry for what's been done baby don't blame me, blame miss jealousy
