

Charlotte Sometimes, This Is Only

Here I am, gullible for now
Here I am, a solid box for now
This is only for now but I'm not so sure
Seems the bugs hit the windshield more than ever before
Spinning down, spinning down, spinning down
I know that you want to
You know that you want to
Here I am, insecure for now
This is only for now but I'm not so sure
Seems the bugs hit the windshield more than ever before
Spinning down, spinning down, spinning down
I know that you want to
You know that you want to
The smell of the matches
The weight of this floor
The way your hair says
You don't need me anymore
I know that you want to
You know that you want to
This is only for now but I'm not so sure
Seems the bugs hit the windshield more than ever before
Spinning down, spinning down, spinning down
