Dancing Your Memory Away (1982)
Its Friday night you must be alone
Thats the only time youd ever phone
But if you drop by dont be surprised
Cause darling I wont be there tonight

Im dancing your memory away in the arms of a stranger For now Im okay, my hearts out of danger Tonight while Im waltzing as the band softly plays Im getting by, one song at a time, dancing your memory away

Once, twice, tell me how many times Was I a fool for your lying eyes But I wont be your fool anymore At least not while Im out on the floor

Im dancing your memory away in the arms of a stranger For now Im okay, my hearts out of danger Tonight while Im waltzing as the band softly plays Im getting by, one song at a time, dancing your memory away

Im dancing your memory away in the arms of a stranger For now Im okay, my hearts out of danger Tonight while Im waltzing as the band softly plays Im getting by, one song at a time, dancing your memory away
