Charly McClain, Very Best Is You (1982)

Charly McClain Miscellaneous Very Best Is You (1982) Why would I want another when the very best is you?

There's so many out there cheating, but you know I like being true They're all searching for something that I've already found in you With all the love you've given, it's so easy to be true Why would I want another when the very best is you?

Every time I look at you, love is all I see Baby you're the greatest thing that's happened to me You're all that I could ever want, it's easy to be true Why would I want another when the very best is you?

You're all that I could ever want it's easy to be true Why would I want another when the very best is you? When the very best is you