

Chase Atlantic, The Walls

Sorry if I look a little lost
I just keep my head up in the clouds, yeah, yeah, yeah
Give it to her however she wants
Told her that she gotta keep it down though, yeah, yeah
I could do this shit like every night (every night)
Grab your friends and pull them to the side, yeah, yeah, yeah
Never been so busy in my life
Told me that she wanna do it twice now, yeah, yeah
Honestly she needs a little loving
Fuck it, now I'm getting off the subject, yeah, yeah
I just think she needs a little something
Or someone, to get into heavy drugs with, yeah, yeah
(Honestly she needs a little loving)
(Fuck it, now I'm getting off the subject) yeah, yeah
(I just think she needs a little something)
(Or someone, to get into heavy drugs with, yeah, yeah)
Everybody's leaning on the walls
I don't think they're ready for the fall (yeah, yeah, yeah)
Had a little, now she wanting more
Told her that I gotta make some calls (yeah, yeah, yeah)
This just might be one hell of a night (yeah, yeah, yeah)
Come with me, we gotta go outside (yeah, yeah, yeah)
Everybody's leaning on the walls
Fuck it, I might take a little more now (yeah, yeah)
Life is getting busy everyday (everyday)
Take a little more to stay awake now, yeah, yeah
She's been busy digging out her grave
Telling me that I gotta behave now, yeah, yeah
Honestly she needs a little loving
Fuck it, now I'm getting off the subject, yeah, yeah
I just think she needs a little something
Or someone, to get into heavy drugs with, yeah, yeah
