

Cheap Sex, Lunch Off To War

the death toll will rise as we launch off to war for revenge and your oil we are coming for you look up in the sky and see the bombs falling down cause life doesn't matter when it's not on our ground the screams of a child and the death of a man and now we're killing for gas out in the sand

protecting the peace...
...but spilling the blood... all hope's for a future are buried in mud.

[Chorus: (x2)]
launch off to war
what the fuck are we fighting for?
a bloody way to settle the score.

so sound the alarm
now there's no turning back and while you're asleep is when we'll attack
the flags will be flown, and the banners will wave until the day
that we're all in our grave.
