

Cheap Trick, Southern Girls (Demo Version)

I've been north, I've been east to the California beach
There's only one place I know where to find you
And all you Southern girls got a way with your words
And you show it
You say, Hump and I'll jump
You say, Go and I'll know
Waste no time getting so close to you
And you'll never run way
When you find out why I wanted to find you
Ooh, baby, need some brand new shoes
Get out on the street, you got nothing to lose
You rock me and your crazy
And everyone says it
Southern girls, you got nothing to lose
Southern girls, you got nothing to lose
I've been up, I've been down
I've been weak, I've been strong
But I never met someone like you
And you'll never run away
When you find why I wanted to find you
You say, Hump and I'll jump
You say, Go and I'll know
Waste no time getting so close to you
All you Southern girls, got a way with your words
And you show it
Ooh, baby need some brand new shoes
Get out on the street, you got nothing to lose
You rock me and your crazy
And everyone says it, yeah yeah
Southern girls, you got nothing to lose
Southern girls, you got nothing to lose
You think this boy, he loves you Southern girls
You make it hard, oh, so hard
I've been north, I've been east to the California beach
There's only one place I know where to find you
And all you Southern girls got a way with your words
And you show it
Ooh, baby, need some brand new shoes
Get out on the street, you got nothing to lose
You rock me and your crazy
And everyone says it
Southern girls, you got nothing to lose
Southern girls, you got nothing to lose
Southern girls, Southern girls, Southern girls
