

Cheap Trick, Y.o.y.o.y

Why, oh why, why, oh why can't I
Be in love forever, oh why can't I
Be in love for ever and ever and ever?
I wonder why, oh why, why, oh why can't I
Be in love forever?
First thing you know is what you're looking for
Next thing you know is where you find it
You can't explain the pain of feelin' so alone
So I won't even try to tell you, no
Why, oh why, why, oh why can't I
Be in love forever, oh why can't I
Be in love for ever and ever and ever?
I wonder why, oh why, why, oh why can't I
Be in love forever?
Some days it hurts so bad, can't take it anymore
Those days and nights, they last forever
Some ways of feelin' good don't feel good anymore
They only mask your real feelings
Why, oh why, why, oh why?
Halfway up, halfway down
Won't you turn my luck around?
Halfway here, halfway there
Say the words and I'll be there
Why, oh why, why, oh why can't I
Be in love forever, oh why can't I
Be in love for ever and ever and ever?
I wonder, why, oh why, why, oh why can't I
Be in love forever?
Be in love forever
Be in love forever
Be in love forever
