

Cheetah Girls, Human

I'm only human
I'm only human

There comes a time
When you have to look back
At your life
All the things you know that
You have done
All the things that you've become
It's hard to say
All the reasons that you
Walked away
Did you think that I was
Just too strong?
Let me tell you you were wrong

'Cause even though I made it on my own
Sometimes the world is cold standing alone
I'm reaching for a hand that I can hold
'Cause in the end I'm only human
My heart's not made of steel
I'm looking for someone to break my shield
'Cause even superheroes have to feel
And in the end I'm only human

I may stand my ground
But that doesn't mean my mind's not
Spinnin' around
Don't be deceived by who you
Think I am
There's so much more you just don't understand
Have you seen me cry?
Have you ever really
Looked into my eyes?
You'd see the walls around me
Ain't that high
Did you ever really try?

'Cause even though I made it on my own
Sometimes the world is cold standing alone
I'm reaching for a hand that I can hold
'Cause in the end I'm only human
My heart's not made of steel
I'm looking for someone to break my shield
'Cause even superheroes have to feel
And in the end I'm only human

There's so many sides to me
So don't be fooled by what you see
Underneath all of these lies
I'm human on the inside

I'm only human
I'm only human

'Cause even though I made it on my own
(I made it)
(Yes I made it)
'Cause in the end I'm only human

(My heart's not)
'Cause even superheroes have to feel

Human
I'm only
I'm only
I'm only
I'm only
See me girl
I'm only
I'm only
I'm only
I'm only
