

Cheez, The Life Of Sam J. Smith

I wake up to the sound of these children
I go to bed at the light of the streets
But hey, what do you expect?
It's the life of Sam J. Smith!

I go to work watching kids get beat up
I go to stores seeing shoplifters
But hey, what do you expect?
It's a hard life for Sam J. Smith!

(repeat both verses)

He never gives up
He never is down
He just watches
And thinks of his glass half full!
(repeat)

(repeat verse 1)

He never gives up
He never is down
He just watched
And thinks of his glass half full
(repeat)

Noone said it would ever be easy
Noone said life would ever be fair
Just try to survive in this world
And you might just make it

Just be like
Sam J. Smith
