Bumper of my SUV

I've got a bright red sticker on the back of my car Says United States Marines yesterday a lady in a mini-van held up her middle finger at me Does she think she knows what I stand for Or the things that I believe Just by lookin at a sticker for the U S Marines
on the bumper of my SUV

See my brother Chris he's been in for more then 14 years now Our dad was in the Navy during Vietnam did his duty then he got out and my grandpa earned his purple-heart on the beaches of Normandy Thats why I've got a sticker
for the U S Marines
on the bumper of my SUV

That doesn't mean that I want more I'm not republican or democrat but I've gone all around this crazy world Just to try to better understand Yes I do have questions I get to ask them because I'm free Thats why I've got a sticker
for the U S Marines
on the bumper of my SUV

'cause I've been to Hiroshima and I've been to the DMZ I've walked on the sand in Baghdad still dont have all of the answers i need but I guess I wanna know where she's been before she judges and gesters to me 'cause she don't like my sticker
for the U S Marines
on the bumper of my SUV

So I hope that lady in her mini-van turns on her radio and hears this from me As she picks up her kids from they're private school and drives home safely on our city streets..... or to the building where her church group meets.... yeah....
Thats why I've got a sticker
for the U S Marines
