

Chemical Garage, My land of dreams

1. Behind the broken shadows.

Behind the fallen dreams.

There is a space without no

Pain, sweat and holy tears.

If I decide to stay here

There will be no way back

But life is so depressing

Probably will go that track

Land of nowhere

Just in my head

Just in my head

I want to make it happen

Want to make it real.

Ref. Never send to go away

Never want to be someone else

I have a simple life between

Heaven and earth.

2. There are some, red and blue trees

But they have just one levee.

And all those, who describe me,

Stand like they would have no tease.

Here is just one entrance

And other never be

If You will think about that

Just look on TV

3. And other are not welcome,

Cause it's just in my head

A land with yellow fought

That was never said

With all my precious moments

I know I'll never be

So I will tell you now, that

Santa does not exist

EXTRA: Never send

Go away

Never want

Someone else
