

Chemical Vocation, I Won't Stay

As I'm looking back
Time is not going to die
Nothing's ever coming back
And nothing's gonna stay

We held hands I'm sorry
The grace liquified
As my dreams took my life
We kissed I wouldn't lie
The shadows took shape as you eyes took my life.
(I would never regret it)

As I close my eyes
Don't trust my words.
Nothing's ever coming back
And I won't stay

We held hands I'm sorry
The grace liquified
As my dreams took my life
We kissed I wouldn't lie
The shadows took shape as you eyes took my life.
(I would never regret it)

We held hands I'm sorry
We kissed I wouldn't lie.

As I head down
I'm sorry
It doesn't matter
shaking in disfeare I'm glad to admid it
I know I would lie

And I won't stay.
