

Chenelle, When Will We Meet Again

I'm tryna remember what you said to me
The first time you walked pass my way
I'm tryna remember the smile on your face
But now said you cannot the replace
But now...
I can feel ya,
I can touch ya,
This is the day will left then had to go
I close my eyes
Pray that I would somehow see you once both
And I swear that I will find my way to you
One day, that day will come
When we will meet again (again, again...)
I ain't badlin you around my hair
Cause I believe in faith this day
That if we really worth mend to be
Some really has together
And that is it for me forever
I can't feel you
Can't irrise you
From my mind babe
Let me let you know
I wanna hold you
Wanna love you
How on the watches grow up
And I swear that I will find my way to you
One day, that day will come
When we will meet again (again, again...)
I didn't gave any chance
To give myself to you
I thinked have it for reason
For you came and why you gone
Now you're all I'm lookin' for
And I swear that I will find my way to you
One day, that day will come
When we will meet again (again, again...)
I swear that I would make my way to see ya
And I won't stop until I find ya
One day, that day will come...
