

Cher, Crystal Clear/Muddy Water

CRYSTAL CLEAR/MUDDY WATER

WRITER LINDA LAURIE

Muddy waters means trouble at your door

But I won't bring them to you anymore

This time I'm back for good

Sticking close to you

And I swear I'll never hurt you again

I'll never be untrue

[Chorus:]

Rain, let it rain

Let it wash these muddy waters

Rain, let it rain

Pour, let it pour

And while these muddy waters raise

I'll be staring into your eyes

Out of the rain

It's crystal clear

That you've been lying to me

It's crystal clear

That you've been playing around

It's crystal clear

I'll end up crying it's meant to be

But all that's left to do is pray

You'll stay with me

I'll take you back just one more time

And make those muddy waters mine

And we'll let it, and we'll let it

[Chorus]

Rain, let it rain

Rain, let it rain
