Cher, Crystal Clear/Muddy Water

CRYSTAL CLEAR/MUDDY WATER WRITER LINDA LAURIE

Muddy waters means trouble at your door But I won't bring them to you anymore This time I'm back for good Sticking close to you And I swear I'll never hurt you again I'll never be untrue [Chorus:] Rain, let it rain Let it wash theses muddy waters Rain, let it rain Pour, let it pour And while these muddy waters raise I'll be staring into your eyes Out of the rain It's crystal clear That you've been lying to me It's crystal clear That you've been playing around It's crystal clear I'll end up crying it's meant to be But all that's left to do is pray You'll stay with me I'll take you back just one more time And make those muddy waters mine And we'll let it, and we'll let it [Chorus] Rain, let it rain Rain, let it rain
