

Cher, It Might As Well Stay Monday (From Now On)

Here it is again Monday morning
And I really got the blues
But it don't much matter
I got no need to smile
And I don't think I will for quit awhile

[Chorus:]
So it might as well stay Monday from now on Cause it seems that the only one I ever love is gone
And it just might as well stay Monday from now on

Go away mister sun I can't use you
Brighten someone else's life
Let the darkest hide me and carry off my pain
For there's nothing you can do, nothing you can do,
Nothing you can do to make things change

[Chorus]
Let the darkest hide me and carry off my pain
For there's nothing you can do, nothing you can do,
Nothing you can do to make things change
And it might as well stay Monday from now on Might as well stay Monday from now on
