

Cher, It's A Cryin' Shame

[Chorus:]

Love walked out the door
It's a crying shame
When we don't have it no more
Love walked out the door
It's a crying shame
When we don't have it no more

Read your letter
I don't know whether
To call you up and talk again
When I saw the name you signed
Going through my mind
Was a memory way back when
Now all that I can tell you
Good love baby sorry that it couldn't be me
Cause it felt so right
If we held on tight I would be with you tonight
We never should of let our

[Chorus]

I won't forget the summer
My heart was like a drummer
Just beating every night away
Walking in the sun with me baby
We were one
Like love was really ours to stay
Now all that I have left is a faded picture
You belong to her today
And the memory of you and me
Is just a use to be
We never should of let our

[Chorus]

Shame we don't have it
Love slipped through my hands
It's a crying shame
I can't play in your band
Love fell at my feet
It's a crying shame
The bitter isn't the sweet
Oh no, oh no

[Chorus x2]
