

Cher, The Long & Winding Road

The long and winding road that leads to your door will never disappear oh well
I've seen the road before and it always brings me here leads me to your door
The long and winding road that the rain washed away that left a pool of tears i
Cried all the days. why leave me standing here oh let me know the way
As many times I will amould and many times I've cried and many times you won't Know and many times I've tried still they lead me back to that long and winding

Road that left me standing here a long long time ago don't leave me standing
Here take me to your door.
But still they lead me back to that long and winding road you left me standing
Here a long long time ago oh please don't leave me here alone take me to your Door
