

Cher, The Look

There was I one night in Acapulco Bored to tears - the band just played a tango
You walked in, suddenly I'm in a spin

There you are just like some kind of hero
More then cool, all brando and de niro Dressed to kill, boy I think you know you will

Just like a time bomb ticking away
No way to stop this runaway train

[Chorus:]

You got the look that makes me weak something in your eyes that words can't speak and you can cast a spell on me like a bullet to my heart Ooh you got a move, a certain style just the thought of you can drive me wild you got the look it's got me hooked
I can't take my eyes off you. . .

What's the story
I watch you stealin' kisses
Broken hearts and tears are so delicious (watch that man)
Boy you know you're in demand

Oh what's the use pretending I don't want you Tease you, taste you - turn you on and taunt you Come to me - ah show me no mercy

I'm flying too close to the sun
But it's a beautiful way out-of-bound

[Chorus]

I'm headin' straight into the sun
And now I'm burnin' up, I'm burnin' up

You got the look that makes me weak somethin' in your eyes that words can't speak
And you can cast a spell on me like a bullet to my heart, oh oh oh You got a move, a certain style
just the thought of you can drive me wild you got the look that's got me hooked
I can't take my eyes off you

no, no, no
Touch me, taste me - tell me that you want me
Keep me comin' back you know you got me Cause you got that look Oh and baby it's my world you shook

Oh cast a spell, I know you got the voodoo
No one makes me feel the way that you do It's the look that's got me hooked
I can't take my eyes off you Can't take my eyes off you. . .
