(Verse 1:)

I aint feelin how girls sometimes be talkin about,
What they don't do, it's crazy.
Cause i got needs just like a fella and you know it's true,
So come and give it to me baby.
I need to have his touch and feel his hand rubs my hair, rocks my body all night.
See i want it like you want it baby boy lets take it there,
I ain't never scared, it's alright.

(Bridge 1:)

I wanna rock you boy,
I certified to climb on top it and ride it im bout to put this thing on you.
I got you boy
Tonight relax yourself, i'll be your fantasy, im bout to make your dreams come true

(CHORUS:)

i wanna be your freak baby
Gotta keep it street baby
Boy u know u need it in your life
Welcome to the Showdown (showdown) it's bout to go down (go down)

Lemme be your freak (i wanna be)
in between the sheets baby
Boy u know u need it in your life
Welcome to the Showdown
I can move it fast
or make it slow down give it to you anyway u like

(Verse 2:)

I wanna lay you down and take off all of your clothes Come let me undress you baby Caress my body and kiss me from head to toe
Then whisper "You're so sexy, baby."
Don't be afraid to touch me wherever you like Let your fingers do the talking baby See your lips go from my neck down to the small of my spine you bout to drive me all crazy!

(Bridge 2:)

Now come get it boy,
Been waiting for too long for you to do that thing that i want you to do to me.
You know im wit it boy
You aint gotta turn out all the lights 'cause i got something i need you to see

(CHORUS)

i wanna be your freak baby
Gotta keep it street baby
Boy u know u need it in your life
Welcome to the Showdown
it's bout to go down give it to you anyway you like Lemme be your freak (i wanna be)
in between the sheets baby
Boy u know u need it in your life
Welcome to the Showdown

I can move it fast
or make it slow down
give it to you anyway u like

(BREAKDOWN)

You just need to put it on me

What i got is good and i will

And i know what you got is

So let me be your freak baby

You and me in every room i swear

Aint no need for talking aint
