

Cherry, Fabulous

You see with your dreams

I know.

I can hear with music.

I only think with dreams.

I can feel with thoughts

I can speak with words.

I can't see!

I can't hear!

I can't feel!

Chorus. Do you know, that it won't last forever?

Do you know, that it all can turn to grey?

Do you know, that you'll run out of happiness?

You won't see!

You won't hear!

You won't feel!

You want to be Someone Great

In your utopian dream.

You're living a dream.

I don't feel with thoughts anymore!

I don't see with dreams anymore!

I know!

Chorus. Do you know, that it won't last forever?

Do you know, that it all can turn to grey?

Do you know, that you'll run out of happiness?

!!(I) Am here!

And now!

I really know, what I should think!
