

Cherry Monroe, Crazy Love

You are sweet, like honey
But you cut me like a knife
This bittersweet poison aint healthy
And i feel like i'm dying

He its a shame to see you cry with weeping eyes
The pain in letting go, my crazylove has done me wrong

Well i guess we had our doubts
My shooting star in the sky
I miss you
I want you
I i need you now
My love for you will never die

He its a shame to see you cry with weeping eyes
The pain in letting go, my crazylove has done me wrong
Hey its a shame to see you cry with weeping eyes
The pain in letting go, my crazylove has done me wrong
My crazylove has done me wrong
My crazylove has done me wrong
My crazylove
My crazylove
My crazylove
